Girls in State Industrial School Form a Plan For General Poisoning.

Walter Brainwell Home-Interesting Basketball Game-Another Tomorrow-Notes and Personals.

Ogden, Feb. 13,-Supt. Allison and thu other officials at the State Industrial school have unearthed a supposed plot which had been entered into by two of the girl inmates of the institution to wison the superintendent and other employes of the school. A few days ago Miss Bilby, the head lady matron the school, took two of the girls om the main building of the instituion to the girls' ward, about a half black away. While at the ward the dris found a box of capsules containing surong poison, which had been left here after the building was disinfected some time ago. When the girls were nken back to the main building again they carried with them the polsor, without the knowledge of Miss Bilby or any of the other teachers. The poison has hidden by the girls, who told another inmate of their having it and their intentions as to its use. This intermation was communicated to Supt. adding the peison; but the girls who ve refused to admit their complicity e officers of the school are making a ve out the names of the girls or any her facts.

EUREKA. Decided That John W. Murray Died

From Natural Causes.

Special Corespondence. Eureka, Feb. 12 .- County Attorney Page has come to the conclusion that John M. Murray, whose body was found in his cabin three miles east of here on Tuesday, came to his death from natural causes and that no inquest was necessary. The remains vere buried here today. The condition of the body indicated that the man had been dead for several days.

Sheriff D. B. Cronin has just completed many needed improvements in the Eureka jail. The sanitary condition of the basile has been very bad for some time past, but it is now cleaned up throughout, the walls, celling and cells painted, and a ventilator put in. New hammocks have been placed in the cells, and hereafter one portion of the lockup will be used exclusively by the county prisoners, and the other by the city offenders. There is no separate apartment in the prison for women at present, owing to the lack of cash in the county treasury, but this will be remedied in the near future by the county commissioners.

TOUCHING SCENE AT FUNERAL Sudden Demise of Joseph P. Dalton Leaving Nine Orphan Children.

Special Correspondence, Parowan, Iron Co., Feb. 10,-Every heart was deeply wrung with grief in attending the funeral services of Joseph P. Dalton yesterday, who died Saturday night very unexpectedly. Although a sufferer from heart trouble he had seemed as well as for some time past, visited some sick friends during day; also called upon most of his relatives. After tuning his daughter's guitar, he played a number of tunes, while his little ones danced to the happy strains. He told his eldest daughter he felt tired and would lie down a while. When the family got ready to retire, they attempted to awaken their father, that he might repair to his own nine children were left orphans. Their mother passed away just one year ago today, a sorrow that rested very heav-ily upon Brother Dalton, as the two were very devoted to each other and their children. A more touching scene is seldom witnessed in real life than when the funeral procession entered the tabernacle, the eldest boy and girl leading, carrying the 15-months-old habe with their six younger ones clustering close behind. S. meetinghouse of this ward on Satur day and Sunday, the 6th and 7th insts. was fairly well attended by members from the various wards comprising the district. The stake presidency of both these organizations, together with the encouraging reports were given showing the work to be growing and accom-plishing good among the youth. Elder Davidson, who is visiting our stake it the interests of mutual improvement spoke very highly of the work in this stake. He had everywhere found a hearty welcome and very few who did not manifest a certain amount of faith in the work of the Lord. Upon talking with those who were careless and way ward he had been able to reach them and elicited from them a promise to take hold of the work and try to make of these associations the success that was designed for them. On Saturday evening a very interesting concert was given by the members of the associations. The program, which had been arranged with the utmost precision and care, was most creditably rendered.

The health of the people is not as good this winter as it has been during those of some of the previous years, there being a great deal of sickness, especially among the children, among whom are several cases of scarlet fever and one or two cases of diphtheria. As vet no deaths have been reported from
